What are my responsibilities?

As Beverage & Food Supervisor at Janine, you will be guiding the team and ensuring every service feels warm, welcoming and memorable. You will:

- Lead the daily operations of Janine Restaurant, from bright breakfast mornings to long lunch gatherings and dinner services centered around our open wood-fired oven.
- Supervise and support the team during your shift.
- Coordinate tasks across the outlets to create seamless service moments that reflect Janine's spirit of craft and connection.
- Coach, train and inspire ambassadors to serve with heart, embodying Janine's brand standards of warmth, thoughtful hospitality and honest flavors.
- Handle essential administrative duties, such as scheduling, shift planning and communication.

Above all, you focus on creating memorable experiences, where guests feel genuinely welcomed and enjoy great food, service and atmosphere.

What are we looking for?

We're looking for a person who brings curiosity, care and a personal touch to everything they do. Someone who genuinely loves food and hospitality, enjoys discovering new flavors and places, and knows how to turn that curiosity into great guest experiences.

With your warm approach and natural leadership style, you know how to bring people together, motivate a team and create a positive atmosphere on the floor.

At the Renaissance Amsterdam Hotel, discovery starts with people who are curious, open and bold. If you enjoy bringing your personality to the floor and creating great moments together, you will feel right at home here.

You...

- Love great food, great service and great energy on the floor.
- Have experience leading a team in Beverage & Food or Events or are ready to step up.
- Communicate confidently in English.
- Are happy working full-time shifts, including mornings, evenings and weekends.
- Are eligible to work in the Netherlands.
